

Ret.Pray.Love.Foundation's Statement of Faith

1. We believe in God the Father, Creator of all things visible and invisible.
2. The Bible is God's divinely inspired revelation to man...infallible and authoritative. These Holy Scriptures are not to be added to, nor subtracted from, by anyone.
3. We believe that the Bible is the final authority for all matters of faith, truth, morality, and Christian living.
4. There is only one true God, revealed to us in the Old and New Testaments as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
5. Jesus Christ is the one and only Son of God, the eternal Word and the one and only Savior.
6. Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary, both fully human and fully divine; Who lived a sinless life; Who suffered and was crucified as an atonement for sin; Who rose again bodily from the dead on the third day; Who ascended into Heaven; and Who will return in victory to rule forever.
7. The only terms of salvation that we may proclaim are those expressed in the New Testament: faith, repentance, confession of faith in Jesus Christ, and baptism for the remission of sins and for the promised presence of the Holy Spirit.
8. The basis of unity of all believers is a commitment to the authority of the Old and New Testaments.
9. The unity of all followers of Christ can be realized on the basis of a return to the primitive pattern for Church doctrine in practice, in polity, and in life as seen in the New Testament.
10. We believe it is ill advised to contribute to division and disunity by aligning ourselves, on the basis of opinion, with any party or sect. Rather, in the spirit of the first century Church and many early Christian reformers, we choose to be non-sectarian.
11. It is required that RPLF Directors, Officers and Staff adhere to these teachings and principles. Each RPLF Representative is expected to strive to attain the goals of Christian character and conduct which are implied in these teachings.
